1. What does xhtml stand for?

2. Can you name one xhtml tag?

3. What is a URL?

4. Web pages are viewed because we have browsers on our computers to display them. Give the names of the two top browsers.

5. Because web pages are sized according to the users chosen screen resolution, what size (in pixels) is the most popular size that WE WILL use to design our web pages?

6. How do we begin the process of designing a site?

7. The two names of every web page are the file name and the title. Explain the difference between them.

8. Write the url to get to my class website www.

9. What is the FILE name of the first page of every website? 