Pleasant Home Foundation presents Beautiful Bungalows: A Celebration in Oak Park, featuring a weekend of events celebrating Oak Park's bungalows, their variety, craftsmanship and modern use. We hope you will join us for some or all of these special bungalow events.

Friday, October 7th  12:00pm to 5:00pm

The Harvey Ellis Bungalow at Crab Tree Farm

Artist Jo Hormuth will lead a unique tour at Crab Tree Farm of the recently constructed bungalow based on Harvey Ellis' 1903 Craftsman article "How to Build a Bungalow." She will talk about its design and interpretation as well as the interior treatment. Ms. Hormuth will explain how the bungalow's decoration and finishes were determined and executed, using drawings and descriptions in The Craftsman, and how the furniture, textiles and objects in this outstanding Arts and Crafts collection represent Gustav Stickley's Craftsman ideals. The tour bus departs from Pleasant Home at 12 noon and returns to Oak Park at the end of the day.

$60 (Space is limited. Advance registration is required. A box lunch is included.)

Friday, October 7th  7:00pm

Beyond the Bungalow Evening Benefit

Pleasant Home Foundation welcomes Paul Duchscherer for a cocktail reception, lecture and book signing. Mr. Duchscherer, an interior designer, historian, lecturer, HGTV "Curb Appeal" guest designer and noted bungalow author, will introduce his new book "Beyond the Bungalow: Grand Homes in the Arts and Crafts Tradition" in which Pleasant Home is included. We hope you will join us for this special benefit.

$45 (Advance registration), $50 (On the day of the event)

Saturday, October 8th  10:00am to 2:00pm

Oak Park Bungalow Tour

Enjoy this unique opportunity for docent-led interior tours of some of Oak Park's most spectacular bungalows, most never before open to the public, and a self-guided walking tour of their historic neighborhoods. Register or pick up tickets beginning at 9:00am at Pleasant Home.

$35 (Advance registration), $40 (On the day of the event)

Saturday, October 8th  7:00pm to 9:00pm

Inside a River Forest Bungalow

Immerse yourself in the warm and cozy ambience of this wonderful Arts & Crafts filled bungalow for this very special evening. For more than 30 years, the owners have honed their collection and their bungalow interior, which includes impressive antiques and new custom design work by Paul Duchscherer, who will be present. The home has been featured in the books "Bungalow Nation" and "Bungalow: American Restoration Style," and will be featured in Old House Journal magazine next spring.

$50 (Space is limited. Advance registration is required.)

Historic Pleasant Home

Special tours of Pleasant Home will take place in the house from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. These will focus on the Arts and Crafts design of its architect, George W. Maher, as seen in the house's furniture, woodworking, light fixtures, and art glass. Throughout the home, Arts & Crafts inspired items will be on display and for sale by contemporary artists and through the Pleasant Home Bookstore. Tours are free with Beautiful Bungalows registration.
